No Place For A Dame

But the thing I love most of all about No Place for a Dame is the triumphant ending. You're relieved that Avery's background won't hold her back any longer. You're satisfied that a surprise plot twist resolves itself with a big, unexpected bang. And you're smiling because you're seeing a love, a first crush, no longer unrequited.

No place for a dame (Book, 2013) [WorldCat.org]

In "No Place for a Dame," those moments of budding love are already in the past, and in fact there's nothing to keep these two people apart except for class distinctions that neither of them gives a fig about. The result is a romance that you can relax and enjoy, confident that it's headed exactly where it seems to be.
